

THE AMERICAN BAPTIST CHURCHES OF PENNSYLVANIA & DELAWARE

For four years now, ABCOPAD churches, pastors, organizations alongside region staff have gathered for a collaborative, cooperative, learning experience we call

Churches from all over our two state region participate. They are metro, urban, rural, and suburban. They are large, medium, and small. Some are old churches, some new. Some are pastored by full-time pastors, some by bi-vocational ones. Some pastors went to seminary. Some trained by our regional school of ministry. Some churches have multi-staff. Some have solo pastors. Some pastored by females, some by males. Some are trying to address specific issues. Others are trying to get from a place of weakness to strength. All churches are trying to move to a new level.

Go Ahead

Each church has committed to at least a three member vision team who sacrificially attend five informative and interactive sessions over six months facilitated by Bryan Rose, our Auxano navigator and our own Jeff Johnson. Each team spends one whole day between co::lab sessions back at their church with their at home team doing follow up assignments as well as homework for the next time. The whole experience is infused with personal and congregational spiritual disciplines. Each team seeks to discover, form, communicate, and then do God's unique vision for their church.

Your gifts to ABCOPAD Partners in Ministry allow us to convene a fifth round of co::lab. So far we have involved more three dozen churches and the ABW and ABMen. What we already learned is impacting for Christ our more than 300 congregations and their communities. Check out these websites for examples:
