Free Resources from the Internet:

DHS Private Sector Resources Catalog, a comprehensive guide for all DHS-provided Internet services and information: http://www.dhs.gov/xabout/gc_1273165166442.shtm or keyword search "DHS Private Sector Resources Catalog"

FEMA On-line Training Courses (in general), http://training.fema.gov/

Suspicious Activity Recognition and Reporting: The indicators and methods for reporting suspicious activity. https://www.dhs.gov/nationwide-sar-initiative-nsi/online-sar-training

Active Shooter: Human Resources or Security Professional: Resources for training others and what you can do. https://www.dhs.gov/human-resources-or-security-professional Workplace Security Awareness (IS-906) Provides guidance to individuals and organizations on how to improve the security in the workplace. Take it at http://www.training.fema.gov/EMIWeb/IS/is906.asp

Active Shooter: What You Can Do (IS-907) on-line course for non-law enforcement employees to prepare for this situation at http://training.fema.gov/EMIWeb/IS/IS907.asp

Surveillance Awareness: What You Can Do (IS-914) Awareness of actions to take in order to detect and report suspicious activities associated with adversarial surveillance. https://training.fema.gov/is/courseoverview.aspx?code=IS-914

Preparing for Mass Casualty Incidents: A Guide for Schools, Higher Education, and Houses of Worship (IS-360) Provides practices and resources to houses of worship in developing emergency plans for preparing for, responding to, and recovering from mass casualty incidents https://training.fema.gov/is/courseoverview.aspx?code=IS-360 www.Ready.gov for comprehensive family and business continuity information .

DHS Webinar "Surveillance Detection Awareness on the Job" is a 90-minute interactive Web presentation designed to raise awareness of suspicious behaviors that might indicate potential surveillance activities. For more information, please contact CIPAC@dhs.gov.

*The American Red Cross Ready Rating™ program is a free, self-paced program designed to help businesses, organizations and schools become better prepared for emergencies. When you join and become a member, you'll complete a 123-point self assessment of your level of preparedness, gain access to tips and best practices information, and commit to improving your score each year to maintain membership. http://www.readyrating.org/Businesses.aspx

First Observer ™ Training The First Observer ™ web site has online training modules for Trucking and School Bus with nine other modules planned. You can log on for training at: http://www.firstobserver.com/training/home.php.

Reference Manual to Mitigate Potential Terrorist Attacks Against Buildings (FEMA 426) https://www.fema.gov/media-library/assets/documents/2150

Local Information Resources and How to Get Access

Pittsburgh Regional Intelligence Brief – A regular product of the Western Pennsylvania All Hazards Fusion Center, it carries international and local intelligence for your information as well as trending statistics in the PA Region 13 Task Force area of Southwest PA. Contact the Fusion Center in Pittsburgh for access at WPAHFC@pa.gov

Pennsylvania State Police CIKR Intelligence Bulletins – Provides intelligence on emerging threats to Critical Infrastructure Owners and Operators after you sign up for the service. Products to meet specific needs can also be requested. Connect by sending an e-mail to SP-protectPA@pa.gov

With the Homeland Security Information Network you are one username and password away from the repository of Current Situational Awareness Reports, Critical Infrastructure Protection Training / Webinars, Real-Time Collaboration Tool, including Intra portal messaging (HSIN secure messaging), Document Library, Incident Updates, Suspicious Activity Reporting, Critical Infrastructure Protection Open Source News, Workflow Management Tool for Document Collaboration, and a host of other information in a vetted and controlled web site. Request access from hsinci@hq.dhs.gov

DHS Private Sector Resource Catalog is the repository of DHS information, training, and services all in one handy PDF file of many pages. Download it at http://www.dhs.gov/private-sector-resources

FBI InfraGard can be found at www.infragard.org and is a partnership between the FBI and the private sector. It is an association of persons who represent businesses, academic institutions, state and local law enforcement agencies, and other participants dedicated to sharing information and intelligence to prevent hostile acts against the U.S. The Pittsburgh Chapter is very active and has a Control Systems Subcommittee run by SA Fred Aldridge, who can be reached at fdaldridge@fbi.gov

AlertPA is the state emergency alerting system you can sign up for at https://alert.pa.gov/index.php?CCheck=1 "Pennsylvania uses AlertPA to provide our citizens and partners with timely information to assist them in making informed decisions. AlertPA delivers emergency and weather alerts, health notifications, tax notifications, building alerts and updates to steer, guide and warn you on all your devices"

Three Rivers Contingency Planning Association is a Pittsburgh-based organization whose goal is to promote education and the timely exchange of information among its members and partners, from both the public and private sectors, including a wide range of industries. TRCPA continues to assist members in developing awareness and improving skills in the fields of contingency planning, business continuity / organizational resilience, critical infrastructure protection, disaster recovery, and continuity of operations planning. This organization also operates TRCPA Notify, which is an emergency notification service for businesses. You can register through their website at http://www.trcpa.org/