

2009 Biennial—A Multi-Ethnic, Cross Cultural Celebration of American Baptist Mission

At the beginning of our second 100 years, American Baptists are actively pursuing questions and answers that affect our everyday and congregational lives.

WORSHIP with internationally known speakers David Coffey, president of the Baptist World Alliance; Kirk Byron Jones, professor of Ethics and Preaching, Andover Newton Theological School; Nick Vujicic, renowned motivational speaker and president of Life Without Limbs; Robin L. Smith, national television personality, best-selling author and licensed psychologist; and others.

SHARE new ideas about everything from “Small Churches in Small Communities” to “Outreach to the World” along with more than a dozen other topics of interest. You can also participate in a prototype Mission Summit.

EXPERIENCE the work of the Lord around the world through National Ministries, International Ministries and the Office of the General Secretary; learn how to protect your staff and your church through The Ministers & Missionaries Benefit Board; celebrate at the Saturday night gala celebration, “We Are ABC: A Multi-Cultural Family Fest.”

HELP those in need by assembling baby kits, school kits and hygiene kits at our re-visioned Mission Fair. These kits will be distributed around the world through Church World Service.

VOTE and be part of American Baptist history by voting on a significant restructuring proposal that will shape our denomination for a second century of success.
