Fulfilling Christ's Mission In The World

Heralding the Living Word

We're in the business of communication! As the angel commanded on that first Easter, "Go and tell," we've got a great story to share. For sure, our priority is a clear full-throated declaration of the gospel. And for that task, ABCOPAD seeks to support pastors and church leaders across Pennsylvania and Delaware through a variety of 21st century communication tools, most notably —

THE ABCOPAD REGIONAL WEBSITE
<http://www.abcopad.org>

Updated weekly (and sometimes daily!), the website is the place where you'll find news, announcements, resources and reports, photos, videos, blog features, and much more. It's loaded with valuable information. Go to the website and you'll catch the latest happenings, discover scheduled mission trips, register for conferences, make a donation, find a local church, download a film clip, read Notes & News. There's a ton of material at your fingertips!

Some major changes are on the horizon. In 2019 a complete renovation of the current ABCOPAD website will take place. The last major build of the ABCOPAD website was ten years ago. The website's appearance and functionality are now outdated and – the truth is – navigating through the current website can be both cumbersome and confusing. Such a renovation will provide us with the benefits of new technologies and web design. Most notably, a new design will: ① improve overall appearance, ② expand the content area to the full screen, ③ allow for compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (allowing access for visually impaired users), ④ improve and simplify site navigation, and ⑤ enable "active response" (allowing the site to look good on both computers and mobile devices).

All of this is to say – again – we're in the business of communication! Announcing, Declaring, Professing, Proclaiming, Heraldng the Living Word. When you support Partners In Ministry, you make regional communications possible. And there's nothing more important than getting the message out!
